

Puzzlemaker is a puzzle generation tool for teachers, students and parents. Create and print customized word search, criss-cross, math puzzle more-using your own word lists.

Settlement - Second Wave

ACROSS

1. How many Metis languages are spoken in Saskatchewan?
6. The Anishinaabe are sometimes called
7. The settler fur traders were usually from this country.
9. First Nations people are often called _____ of the land.
10. Over time, the Metis people grew into their own
11. This food was very valuable to help survive during the winter.
12. The children of fur traders and First Nations women were called.
13. Metis women were highly skilled at this craft.

DOWN

2. This animal could be ridden and important to the Nehiyawak
3. First Nations people moved to different camps during the year. This can be called, living in _____.
4. Fur trade outposts were built beside these.
5. Metis people used these to transport food and fur and even as homes.
7. First Nations people relied on the land for hunting, trapping and _____.
8. Plants were used by First Nations people for food and _____.

Use the clues to fill in the words above.

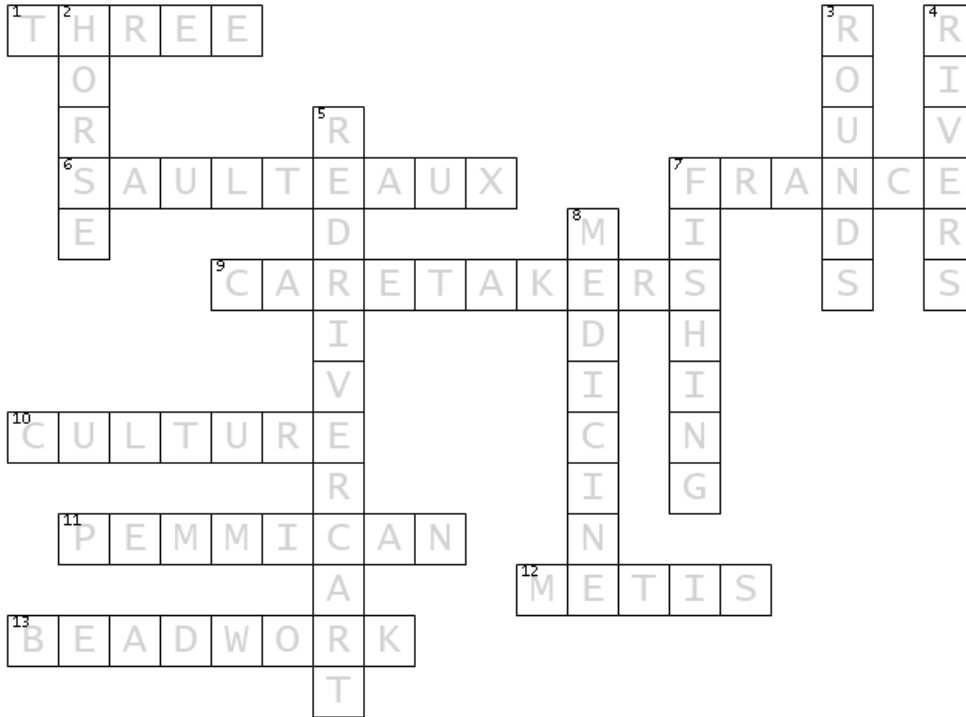

ExploreSaskAg.ca

Puzzlemaker is a puzzle generation tool for teachers, students and parents. Create and print customized word search, criss-cross, math puzzle more-using your own word lists.

Settlement - Second Wave

ACROSS

- How many Metis languages are spoken in Saskatchewan?
- The Anishinaabe are sometimes called
- The settler fur traders were usually from this country.
- First Nations people are often called _____ of the land.
- Over time, the Metis people grew into their own
- This food was very valuable to help survive during the winter.
- The children of fur traders and First Nations women were called.
- Metis women were highly skilled at this craft.

DOWN

- This animal could be ridden and important to the Nehiyawak
- First Nations people moved to different camps during the year. This can be called, living in _____.
- Fur trade outposts were built beside these.
- Metis people used these to transport food and fur and even as homes.
- First Nations people relied on the land for hunting, trapping and _____.
- Plants were used by First Nations people for food and _____.

Use the clues to fill in the words above.